

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca
Clark County

YWCA Clark County's Women's Leadership Center is dedicated to empowering women and girls to achieve their full potential and become leaders in their communities, schools, and workplaces. Leadership development classes are held at YWCA Clark County's main office at 3609 Main Street in Vancouver.

GIRLS' LEADERSHIP ACADEMY - RESCHEDULED

Developed in partnership with Girls Inc., this 3-week course is open to girls in 6th-9th grades. Participants will learn action-oriented leadership skills, increase communication skills, learn to skillfully navigate conflict, and identify and work to address issues in their community.

Dates: Contact Jen Cai at jcai@ywcaclarkcounty.org for new dates

Tuition: $120, need-based scholarships available

girls inc.

of the Pacific Northwest

IMAGE TO INCOME: CREATING AN AUTHENTIC, PROFITABLE AND CONFIDENT IMAGE WORKSHOP

Open to women of all ages, this 2-hour workshop supports women to speak with confidence, dress for success, and navigate common challenges. Facilitated by Dr. Carol Parker Walsh.

Date: Friday, October 20th, 10:00am-12:00pm

Price: $20, need-based scholarships available

EMPOWERING WOMEN IN THE WORKPLACE: NEGOTIATING SALARY AND ADVOCATING FOR YOURSELF WORKSHOP

This 2-hour workshop shares best practices for negotiating competitive compensation packages and effectively advocating for yourself in the workplace. Facilitated by Sherri Bennett and Stephanie Egbers.

Date: Friday, December 1st, 9:00-11:00am

Price: $20, need-based scholarships available

CONTACT

Questions, requests for future workshop topics, or ready to register?

Jen Cai

Women's Leadership Center Coordinator

YWCA Clark County

jcai@ywcaclarkcounty.org

<http://ywcaclarkcounty.org/wlc>